El nuevo mundo ... 1701. (Card 2)

The theme is the discovery of America by Columbus. The work, written in the author's youth, was never completed, numerous large gaps having been left in the composition (e. g. libro I, stanza 78-107; II, 60-80; III, 103-142; VI, 180-228; VII, 24-73, 97-128, 137-178; VIII, 17-77, 102-201, 211-283; IX, 1-200, 222-282, 281-301, 302-449, 500-527; X, 138-162, 180-208). Though in his preface the author speaks of his intention of completing the work, no other edition was ever issued.

Title-page differs slightly from another issue of the same year containing dedicatory letter "Al ilustrissimo señor Don Manuel de Toledo, general de batalla en las exercitos del rey catolico, etc."

Numerous errors in paging.

Intuitions and summaries of thought, by C. N. Bovee ... Boston, W. Veazie; New York, Sheldon and company, 1862.

2 v. 18^m.

"A small part of these volumes originally appeared in the 'American review', under the title of 'Thoughts, feelings and fancies', in 1848; a larger proportion, in a volume bearing the same title, was published in 1857; and a lesser, under the title of 'Thoughts', contributed to the 'Atlantic monthly', in 1858. The rest is new. Altogether, the editions, revisions, and additions are so numerous, and the form of presentation of the subject-matter is so modified, that this may be regarded as substantially a new work."
